Connected Communities series

Series Editors: Keri Facer, University of Bristol and George McKay, University of East Anglia

The Connected Communities series showcases engaged research from the UK Arts and Humanities Research Council (AHRC), which seeks to understand the changing nature of communities and their role in addressing contemporary individual, societal and global concerns.

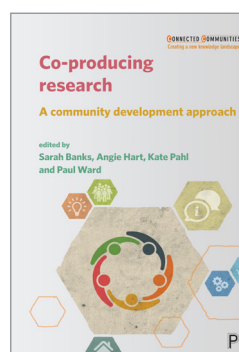

The series focuses on innovation in research methodologies, and brings together interdisciplinary research, culture and creativity, and the expertise and insights of communities themselves. It discusses the co-production of action research to combine academic and public knowledge for high impact.

Resilience and ageing

Edited by Anna Goulding, Bruce Davenport and Andrew Newman

Focuses on understanding how creative interventions can help develop social connectivity and resilience for older people in order to develop a holistic cross-sector approach towards ageing well.

Co-producing research

Edited by Sarah Banks, Angie Hart, Kate Pahl and Paul Ward

Offers a critical examination of the nature of co-produced research by drawing on materials and case studies from the 'Imagine – connecting communities through research' project.
