

Chapter Three

www.CrosswordWeaver.com

ACROSS

1. The adjective used to describe the kind of freedom which is about doing things
4. The word used to describe a form of equality which is focused on people having roughly the same wealth, income, etc.
8. The adjective used to describe rights that are associated with welfare
13. The type of need in Bradshaw's taxonomy that is based on expert judgement
14. The adjective used to describe a form of need based on subsistence
15. A theory of citizenship based on individual freedom

DOWN

2. The set of needs at the top of Maslow's hierarchy
3. The type of need that can be described as 'We need x for y, and need y.'
5. The word used to describe a notion of need based on flourishing
6. The set of needs at the bottom of Maslow's hierarchy
7. Equality of what exists in the absence of discrimination?
9. The type of need that can be described as 'We need x for y, but desire y.'
10. Rawl's principle, which allows for some level of inequality
11. The adjective used to describe freedom from interference
12. Subjective felt needs in Bradshaw's taxonomy