Welcome

Our growing Criminology, Criminal Justice and Policing list takes a critical stance and features boundary-pushing work with innovative, cutting-edge and compelling publications. We welcome interdisciplinary work, new and exciting research methods, theory-based texts and policy-orientated publications.

Our criminology books help our readers to understand not only crime and its causes but also ways it can be prevented. They aim to open up the intricate workings of the criminal justice system and lay bare the unjust policies that exist around the world. A particular focus of all our books is engaging with global social challenges, both on a local and international level. We aim to publish books in a wide range of formats that will have real-world impact and shape public discourse, and always welcome new ideas.

What Are Prisons For?

Hindpal Singh Bhui, University of Oxford

"With an ever-rising prison population, there has never been a better time to ask what prisons are for."

DAME ANNE OWERS, PREVIOUSLY CHIEF INSPECTOR OF PRISONS AND CHAIR OF PRISON INDEPENDENT MONITORING BOARDS

What does a good prison look like? Over 11 million people are currently locked up in prisons across the world, but does that mean that prison actually works? Hindpal Singh Bhui, with 20 years' experience of visiting and working in prisons worldwide, argues that we need to look at who is sent there and why, to disentangle reality from ideology and myth. Introducing the competing histories of prisons and allowing the voices of prisoners, prison staff and victims to be heard, he asks whether there is a better way to achieve what society wants from its prisons.

What Is It For?

Luxury and Corruption

Challenging the Anti-Corruption Consensus

Tereza Østbø Kuldova, Oslo Metropolitan University, Jardar Østbø, Norwegian Defence University College and Thomas Raymen, Northumbria University

"Reveals core contradictions and dynamics that drive contemporary capitalism. A fascinating read."

JANINE WEDEL, GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY

The world has been bombarded in recent years with images of the luxurious lives and wealth of corrupt oligarchs and kleptocrats, amassed at the expense of ordinary people. Such images exploit our feelings of injustice, are taken as indicative of moral decay and inspire a desire to purge our economies of dirty money, objects and people. But why do anti-corruption efforts routinely fail? What kind of world are they creating? Looking at luxury art, antiquities, superyachts and populist politics, this book explores the connection between luxury and corruption, and offers an alternative to the received wisdom of how we tackle corruption.

The Crime Data Handbook

Edited by Laura Huey and David Buil-Gil

"This text brings together relevant topical areas with contributions that should be foundational readings for both academics and practitioners."

GRANT DRAWVE, CAP INDEX

One of its most pressing challenges in crime data is the lack of research on the use and interpretation of data sources. This accessible, engaging book closes that gap for researchers, practitioners and students.

Journal of Gender-Based Violence

Volume 8 | 2024 | 3 issues

IMPACT FACTOR 1.5 | CITE SCORE 1.9

Editor in Chief: Marianne Hester, University of Bristol, UK

Co-Editors: Nadia Aghtaie, University of Bristol, UK, Lis Bates, The Open University, UK, Aisha K. Gill, Jade Levell, Natasha Mulvihill, Jessica Roy, William Turner, Julia Viebach, University of Bristol, UK

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence is the first international journal based in Europe to showcase the work of scholars across disciplinary and topic boundaries, and from a range of methodologies.

The journal acknowledges both the breadth of gender-based violence (GBV) and its links to gendered inequalities. It aims to continue to document the voices and experiences of victims and survivors of GBV, to publish work regarding those who perpetrate GBV and to uncover the varied and complex social structures, inequalities and gender norms through which GBV is produced and sustained.

The journal recognises the intersection of gender with other identities and power relations, such as ethnicity, nationality, sexuality, faith, disability and economic status.

The Journal of Gender-Based Violence is published by Policy Press on behalf of the Centre for Gender and Violence Research at the University of Bristol.

"The multidisciplinary approach of the Journal will not only provide a scholarly illumination of the complexity of the issue, but also offers a place for transforming knowledge into innovative responses."

Justice, Power and Resistance

Volume 7 | 2024 | 3 issues

Co-Editors: Jon Burnett, University of Hull, UK and Ida Nafstad, Lund University, Sweden

Consulting Editor: Vicky Canning, University of Bristol, UK

Justice, Power and Resistance is an international, peer-reviewed journal promoting critical analysis and connecting theory, politics and activism. Working towards social justice, state accountability and decarceration, the journal is primarily a vehicle to make accessible and advance challenging research and scholarship that can be utilised to critically inform contemporary debates and policies. Originally based within the European Group for the Study of Deviance and Social Control, the journal invites academics, practitioners and activists to think critically about the concepts of justice and power, and what the implications of these are for the lives of people most affected by social harms.

"This journal is an essential purchase, and will continue to bridge the gap between academics, practitioners and activists in a way not seen by other academic journals."

eBooks

All our books are available as ePUBs and ePDFs through a wide range of eBook providers.

Library customers can purchase our eBooks from a range of digital platforms and library aggregators, including JSTOR, EBSCO, ProQuest, IG Publishing and CNEIPC.

Our digital monograph collections are available through Policy Press Scholarship Online (PPSO) in partnership with Oxford University Press, Cambridge Core and Project Muse.

Our eTextbooks are available to buy through Kortext, VitalSource and Perlego. Individual eBooks are also available from online
 bookshops including Amazon Kindle, Google
 Play, Kobo and eBooks.com.

You can purchase eBooks (ePUB) directly from us at bristoluniversitypress.co.uk. If you buy an ePUB on our website, you will need to read it using Adobe Digital Editions
 (ADE) reader software as our eBooks are DRM-protected. To download ADE on your computer, see:
